HOBBY CARRIES TEXAS BY 300,000 MAJORITY

GERMANS BEGIN RETREAT NORTH

(Associated Press Summary.)

The Germans are beginning a retreat along the entire front north of the Marne.

This point of the front in the Aisne-Marne salient is about twenty miles across, and the advance of the French and allied forces from the arc constituting the bottom of the sack has been two or three miles beyond the line officially reported a day or two ago. This means that the German Crown Prince and his generals are extricating their troops from a dangerous position as best they may.

Reports from French headquarters indicate that the Germans are carrying out extensive preparations for the evacuation of the territory between the Marne and the Ourcq. It is understood that the allies will endeavor to drive in the enemy flank. Bruyeres which lies a little more than three miles northeast of Armentieres, is at one end of the new allied positions and Chaumussy, southwest of Rheims Wood, lies on the other. Here the new line unites with the old. Chateau-Thierry, once the pivotal point of the German advance on their recent offensive, is now ten miles or more to the south of the allied front.

All the territory running northward from Chateau Thierry, as well as to the east and west has been retaken, largely by the French and American troops, by fighting of the sternest nature during the last week. Since the French and Americans struck the German line from Fontenoy to Belleau a week ago last Thursday, the Germans have been forced to reform their lines and to pour into the salient south of the Vesle river many divisions of fresh troops probably intended for use elsewhere along the front. The principal fighting for the past few days has taken place along the Oulchy-Le-Chateau-Villemonais-Boilly sectors and to the southeast through the wooded country, and the Germans have been compelled to give ground; but it has been a slow process the allies have carried on in turning the enemy out of the sector and forcing them to withdraw toward Fere-en-Tardenois.

A new German offensive against some other sector of the line for the purpose of relieving the pressure on the armies of the Crown Prince north of the Marne is expected by some military experts, but it has not developed as yet. It appears to be the consensus of opinion that the German attack when it comes will be launched against the British fronts in Picardy or Flanders.

On the Albanian front the French and Italian offensive has slowed down considerably, but is still making ground around the right wing of the Teutonic armies in Macedonia. It has not as yet reached the point where it menaces the Austrian and Bulgarian positions from the east.

This request applies with increased earnestness to residents of districts which have not yet pledged their quota. Please do not delay the money is not required until the crop is harvested, but the pledge is needed now if your district is to go over.

If you do not receive a letter, come anyhow. Do not wait to be further requested.

ENGLISH NEWSPAPERS UPHOLDING PREMIER'S WORK OR FIGHT RULE

London, July 27. (AP)—The announcement last night of Premier Lloyd-George that workmen absent from factories on or after Monday will be deemed to have voluntarily placed themselves outside the munitions industry, and that they will become liable to military service, was issued too late to reach the bulk of strikers last night. Consequently it was not generally known in strike areas.

It was, however, communicated to the strike leaders at some centers by newspaper men to whom the leaders declared they were confident that the strikers would not be influenced or driven to resume work by the government threat. The leaders added that such a possibility had been considered fully before hand.

No reports reached London last night of an extension of the strike and the great bulk of the workers still remain unaffected. Such important centers as London, Manchester, Leeds, Nottingham and Huddersfield for instance, remain cool.

Morning newspapers here comment on the government announcement mostly with approval, although they recognize the decision as a grave one.

NEGRO LYNCHED BY MOB AT BEN HUR FOR ALLEGED ASSAULT

Groesbeck, Texas, July 27. (AP)—Jim Brown, a negro, was lynched at noon today by a crowd of about two hundred men at Ben Hur, a small place near Groesbeck, for an alleged attempted assault on a young woman at Ben Hur. While the young woman was asleep in bed someone is said to have entered her room and threw a poisonous acid on her body. The acid evidently had been mistaken for a drug that was expected to produce unconsciousness, it is reported.

The man ran when the young woman screamed. A crowd quickly gathered on the trail of the girl's assailant and in a short time Jim Brown was taken in charge.

The sheriff was notified, but before he could arrive the negro had been hanged to a tree and the crowd dispersed. The young woman's face was badly burned by the acid, but she sustained no serious injury.

BELIEVE ANOTHER SUBMARINE STILL OFF ATLANTIC COAST

Washington, July 27. (AP)—Secretary Daniels said today that the Navy Department had reports which led to the belief that there was a German submarine still off the Atlantic coast. He added, however, that no reports of attacks on vessels had been received.

GREEK KING HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM BOMBPLANE

Athens, Greece, July 27. (AP)—King Alexander of Greece had a narrow escape from death today. The train on which he was returning from the Serbian front was bombed by enemy aviators at the Florina station. The bomb just missed the engine. No one was hurt.

PARTIAL COUNT OF RETURNS IN LAMAR

Lamar county did her duty nobly yesterday and with approximately seven thousand votes cast endorsed William P. Hobby for governor at the rate of five or six to one.

Fewer boxes were reported than in any election in ten years, but practically all the contests are settled by the figures obtained.

Returns telephoned The News last night accounted for approximately 4000 votes, and included complete unofficial figures from Petty, Norvell, Biardstown, Glory, Minter, Howland, Broadway, Deport, Ambia, Chicota, Spring Hill, Powderly, Clardy, Sumner, Emberson, Blossom, Cunningham, Pattonville, Cothran, Ward 1.

Forest Hill gave only governor state school superintendent and county judge and attorney.

The totals obtained as above are:

For Governor—
Ferguson	663
Hobby	3039
Lieutenant Governor—
Moore	695
Cowell	801
Henderson	614
Davidson	290

Sturgeon	1662

These figures show Hutchison leading Martin 463 for judge. Partial returns from Wards 2, 3 and 4, the latter 85 percent complete, add 49, making Hutchison's lead 512.

The same partial returns added in the attorney's race, add 21 to Eubank, giving him a lead of 457 instead of 436 as shown by the totals of complete returns.

The cotton weavers at Paris are so incomplete as to leave room for doubt. Figures obtained by the News complete and incomplete, give Whitten 867 and Adams 987 for first place and Buford 925 and Pollard 719 for second place. Either or both may be changed.

Lee Allen is elected justice of the peace in Paris precinct by a big lead, and all the old commissioners appear to be re-elected. Other precinct returns are too meager to even hazard an opinion.

The News received the returns by courtesy of the Southwestern in its central office where every facility was provided, if the people at the voting ends of the lines had done their part, but evidently many of them did not think it of enough importance.

The bright outstanding feature of the whole affair was the voting of the women. They voted early and intelligently, walking up to the polls, making their tickets and going about their business afterwards as if they had voted all their lives. One who has been taking part in elections the past twenty years could not help but compare it with the good old days when

FRENCH INSTRUCTORS AND U. S. SERGEANT DROWN NEAR DEMING

Deming, N. M., July 27. (AP)—Two French officers, Lieutenant Jegou and Lieutenant Herbert, instructors at Camp Cody and Sergeant Picard of the American army, are believed to have been drowned last night in the Whitewater stream ten miles from Silver City, N. M. They left here in an automobile yesterday for Silver City.

A body identified as that of Sergeant Picard was found near the overturned automobile on the edge of the stream. Another body was found seven miles down the stream from the car.

GERMANS SAY THEY HAVE TWENTY SUBS ON AMERICAN COAST

Geneva, July 27. (AP)—A dispatch received at Basel, Switzerland, today from Hamburg says:

"More than twenty large submarines are now operating off the American coast. The number of submarines in the Atlantic has been increased by thirty per cent in the last seven months."

No German denial, official or unofficial, has been made concerning the recent statement of a Swiss engineer who returned to Geneva from Kiel that the harbor there is full of damaged submarines and that it is difficult to find crews for the German U-boat service.

YANK CAPTIVES TELL HUNS LITTLE THEY DON'T ALREADY KNOW

Geneva, July 27. (AP)—"Ask Pershing," "Cable Wilson." These are some of the answers given by American prisoners to German officers who questioned them about naval and military matters. The German officers are curious at the American prisoners for their refusal to divulge any information and for the coldly sarcastic manner in which the men invariably reply to their attempts to secure information.

WELL KNOWN CRITIC KILLED BY SEAPLANE

Babylon, N. Y., July 27. (AP)—Gustav Kobbe, widely known as an author and critic of music and the drama, was killed today when a naval seaplane, sweeping down on the surface of Great South Bay, struck a small boat in which Mr. Kobbe was sitting.

THE WEATHER

East Texas—Sunday and Monday, generally fair.

the saloons were headquarters for the campaign managers and their heelers stood thick around the polls with a bundle of tickets rubber banded to a shingle, ready "scratched" to hand to the man who had not intelligence enough to make his own. Verily the times are out of joint, and also the joints are out of the times and politics from now on will be fit for anyone to engage in.

Deposed Executive Fails to "Come Back" in Appeal to Voters at Polls

The streets of Austin need never run red with blood. "Old Betsy" need never feel the hand put forth to bring her from her place behind the door. The people of Texas need never remove either their chapeaux or their shoes when admitted hereafter to the august presence of their chief executive. For, consigning to political oblivion by the indisputable power of their sovereign ballot the impeached former governor of the Lone Star State, the men—and women—of Texas yesterday vindicated the administration of William P. Hobby, and coincidentally loosed the hair that had held suspended the Damoclean sword of swift and eternal justice above the head of a faithless servant.

In other words, Jim Ferguson got it yesterday where the chicken got the axe—in his stiff, unbending neck.

With one-fifth of the precincts of the state heard from, Governor William P. Hobby had run far ahead of Former Governor J. E. Ferguson, his chief opponent in the race for the Democratic nomination for Governor. His vote at that stage was 102,056 as compared with 39,219 for Ferguson. Political writers on the Dallas News and the Houston Post, two papers which had supported Hobby throughout the campaign, claimed his nomination by majorities of between 300,000 and 400,000. It was estimated that more than 140,000 votes had been cast.

Congressional returns at midnight indicated that Congressman Thomas L. Blanton was nominated by a safe majority over Joseph Adkins of Brady, Texas, but close races were evident elsewhere. In the Second district J. C. Box of Jacksonville was leading by a few votes over V. A. Collins of Beaumont. In the Sixth district B. A. Dichter is running slightly ahead of Congressman Rufus Hardy. In the Seventh W. L. Hill of Huntsville had a lead over Clay Stone Briggs of Galveston, with Jeff McLeMore, now congressman-at-large, running far behind. Congressman Eagle and Daniel Garrett, now congressman at large are running about even. A. P. Barrett of San Antonio has a slight lead over Carlos Bee in the Fourth district. Zach Lamar Cobb was ahead of Claude B. Hudspeth in the Sixteenth. In the Fourth district Congressman Dan Rayburn of Bonham is running far ahead of R. K. Lovelace.

Miss Annie Webb Blanton, of Denton, the only woman candidate in the state, is apparently running far ahead of W. F. Doughty, the incumbent superintendent of public instruction.

Dallas, Texas, July 27. (AP)—At 10:15 o'clock the Dallas News issued a statement saying that with a vote of 740,000 counted, Hobby has received a majority of 250,000.

Houston, July 27. (AP)—The estimate of the Houston Post at 11 o'clock was that Hobby would win by 348,000, if the returns continued in the proportion they had been coming in.

MARNE RIGHT BANK CLEAR

Paris, July 27. (AP)—The Germans are today retiring along the whole front north of the Marne and the war office announced tonight that the French and allied troops were pressing hard on the enemy's rear, having reached the line of Bruyeres-Villeuve-sur-Fere, Courmont, Farcy, Vrieny, Cuicelles, Laneuville, Chaumussy. The allied advance is approximately fifteen kilometers, or ten miles, northeast of Chateau Thierry. The right bank of the Marne has been widely cleared of the enemy.

ALLIES HOT ON HUN TRAIL

With the American Forces on the Aisne-Marne Front, July 27. (AP)—The French and Americans are continuing their rapid advance to the northeast in the forest of Fere. The retreat of the enemy was rapid the allied forces losing contact at times with the retreating Germans. It was cloudy all day and there were numerous showers, making it impractical to keep up the observation balloons. Occasionally both the allies and the enemy attempted reconnaissances with airplanes, but these were forced to descend soon on account of the rain. There is a growing belief that the enemy will make no effective stand on the Ardre river.

A visitor from Oklahoma last night reported that United States Deputy Marshal Sterling Stamper, aided by other officers and possemen discovered another moonshine still in the mountains north of Fort Towson last Thursday and made a raid on it. The raid resulted in the capture of six men who were said to have been connected with it. An old man who was said to have been more than seventy years of age and some of his boys were among the captured moonshiners. The still was said to have been in operation for some time. The prisoners were brought to Hugo to jail, and some of the illicit whisky was brought in as evidence, after the rest of it had been destroyed. Deputy Marshal Stamper is a son of R. M. Stamper of Paris and has made quite a record in ferreting out wildcat whisky dens.

Not One Could Tell Her

"Why," said the woman suffragist, stepping forward to the footlights, and commencing a lecture with a lofty flight of eloquence, "why was I born?"

She paused—a thrill ran through the audience. Again the high tones of the winsome woman's voice rolled over the expectant people as she repeated the question.

"Why was I born?" and again she paused, that the due impression might be made soon upon her hearers before she answered her own question.

"Why was I born?" she asked once more, in touching and almost painful accent, when a wicked boy in the gallery shouted:

"We don't know. We give it up!"

FRENCH FOLLOW AMERICANS TO LAST RESTING PLACE

Paris, July 27, (P)—Four, five and in many cases, six thousand miles from their maternal hearth, the American dead, heroes of the second battle of the Marne who have succumbed from grievous wounds in Paris hospitals, are mourned daily by French mother, sisters, and fathers who feel the emotions of these heroes' kindred at home.

Daily the funerals leave the city hospitals for the little Suresnes cemetery dedicated to Americans by the city of Suresnes, located on a hill on the west of Paris overlooking the French metropolis. Daily the Republican Guard in their picturesque and historic military attire march forth to the funeral to bestow France's regard upon these American heroes, and though no volley is fired because it is forbidden by the French authorities, the American bugler sounds "taps" with impressive toning.

A service is first held in the little chapel in the hospital. Protestant chaplains officiate over the dead of their faith and Catholic over theirs. The hospital organization such as can be spared, including nurses, orderlies, clerks and doctors attend the service.

The bodies are borne from the chapel to waiting ponderous army motor trucks. The Republican Guard and the marines furnish an escort. As each body is brought to the conveyance, these military units execute "present arms." When all the dead have been placed upon their military bier, the procession to the cemetery starts. At the head are the chaplains in motor cars. Then follow the motor trucks and last the guard of honor.

The coffins are draped with American flags. Each one bears two wreaths, one given by the Republic of France and the other by the City of Paris. Tri-color ribbons bind the wreaths. In letters of gold, the ribbons are marked "Aux Défenseurs de la Patrie."

The little procession winds its way along the boulevards. The French woken its significance. Without exception as it passes, every pedestrian stops, uncovers and bows in homage to the American heroes.

Reaching the summit of the hill of Suresnes, the interment of the bodies begins. A crowd of French mothers and sisters gathers at the graves, and chaplains pronounce the last words, and heavy of heart, they feel the experience of those thousands of miles away.

The American bugler takes his place and slowly and feelingly sounds "taps." The assemblage is moved to tears. At the final tone, the command is given and the military escort returns to its post in the city. The mothers and sisters return to their homes feeling the heaviness of the committal of the American heroes to the grave. Their thoughts are carried to the mothers and sisters back home.

The Suresnes cemetery is the gift of the Suresnes municipality to the American army. It is beautifully situated in the midst of a cluster of trees. The city of Paris can be viewed from the location. The walks are

FULTON OUT IN THE FIRST ROUND

Harrison, Park, N. J., July 27, (P)—Jack Dempsey of Salt Lake City knocked out Fed Fulton, claimant of the heavyweight championship title, with a right hook to the jaw in the first round here tonight.

Both men, stripped, looked in the pink of condition. Fulton's weight was given at 208 pounds and Dempsey's at 188. Fulton did not land a blow on his opponent, who confidently ly asserted before he entered the ring that he would knock out the big Rochester, Minn., plateer in short order.

TO THE PROHIBITION FORCES OF TEXAS

This word of warning is sent out to call attention to the vital fact that Statewide Prohibition is hanging in the balance.

The higher courts now have under consideration the case testing the Constitutionality of the Statewide law. It is exceedingly important that Prohibitionists in every county see to it that the right sort of men are sent as delegates to the Democratic State Convention at Waco. Furthermore, be sure and have the delegates instructed to vote in the Convention for a plank in the platform calling upon the next legislature to submit to a vote of the people an amendment to the State Constitution providing for Statewide Prohibition.

In the primaries two years ago the people voted instructing the legislature to submit to the people an amendment and such instructions are still binding, however, it seems imperative that the State Convention representing the Democracy of Texas, demand that the legislature obey the voice of the people and to that end let no loyal Democrat be a slacker.

M. H. Wolfe, Chairman,
Statewide Prohibition Com.

A CRIPPLED OLD MAN PULLS OFF STREET SHOW

A crippled old fellow who blew into town toward the middle of the afternoon yesterday created quite a diversion by his picturesque appearance and novel mode of locomotion. A diminutive burro furnished the motor power, but instead of pulling the cart in which he was riding it was geared up behind and pushed it with iron rods that extended from a pack saddle. He was rigged up like a mountaineer climber and was accompanied by a boy about twelve years old. They displayed a placard which read: "From New York to San Diego." The old man offered picture postcards for sale. He traveled up and down the streets awhile leading a large crowd around. One man suggested that the crippled man was Jas. E. Ferguson being carried by the mule down Salt river.

WANTED TO DIVEST HIS CLOTHES ON THE STREET

An unfortunate young man from the northwest part of the county who had been showing symptoms of being out of his right mind for a few days was brought to town yesterday by relatives. It was said that he had been slipping away from home and that he threatened to kill his brother. After reaching town while he was sitting in an automobile he started to strip off his clothes. Deputy Sheriff O. V. McDonald was summoned and took him to the courthouse after succeeding in getting him to partly dress. He could not be persuaded to put on his shoes. The relatives carried him to a local hospital for treatment and it is hoped he will be all right in a short time.

ELATED AT PROSPECT OF GOING OVERSEAS

A letter from Secretary of War Baker to Governor Hobby in regard to the organization of the new Texas National Guard regiments, which appeared in the dispatches yesterday, stated that while the order for the organization of the regiments was for general duty arrangements had been made to detach the A. & M. regiment for overseas service. The boys of the infantry company that is being organized at Paris were elated on perusal of this dispatch, as they all want to go across.

Capt. Beauchamp said that the company will be taken for training either to Austin, San Antonio, or El Paso and that the officers would be trained at the same time and place. When they are organized for overseas service there will be five more lieutenants commissioned for the company and it is expected that a large number of the enlisted men will have an opportunity to go into a training camp to fill these places.

Such members as fall on the foreign service examinations will be transferred to those sections that will remain on the Texas border.

FREE OPERATIONS FOR DRAFTED MEN

It sometimes happens that men called for military service are found to have slight ailments which can be cured by an operation. Realizing that few of these men are able to pay for an operation the government has called on the surgeons of the country to donate their skill and time for this purpose and so far not a man has been found to refuse.

The Sanitarium of Paris has informed the Lamar county boards that its physicians will perform any service needed by any registrant in order to fit him for army duty, free of any charge and will give all necessary hospital accommodations also free. This is a most patriotic and liberal attitude and will doubtless be appreciated by the registrants and their families.

The Store that Sells the Goods

CHIEF OF STAFF REVIEWS FIGHT ALONG THE MARNE

Washington, July 27. (AP)—Trained combat American troops from France have begun to arrive in Italy. General March announced today at his regular conference with newspaper men.

Neither the number nor the place where they are to be used has been communicated to the war department, the general said.

Summing up the battle situation on the Aisne-Marne front, General March said that it had resulted, according to official advices, in forcing the Germans back eleven miles further from Paris and shortening the allied line by ten miles.

The positions on the flank of the salient near Soissons and Rheims are relatively unchanged, General March said.

The German withdrawal from Chateau Thierry toward the center of the salient continues, and the important German center of Fere-En-Tardenois is now within three and one-half miles of the allies' lines and under constant shell fire.

As a result, General March said, the French already are beginning to advance northward from the Marne against the enemy forces in the pocket on that side of the salient.

The most striking advance since last Wednesday which General March noted was by the British just west of Rheims. This advance, of a mile and a half on a four-mile front, he said, marked a special source of danger to the enemy placing his forces to the south in an awkward position.

The German attack at Epides only delayed the American progress and the troops are again moving forward.

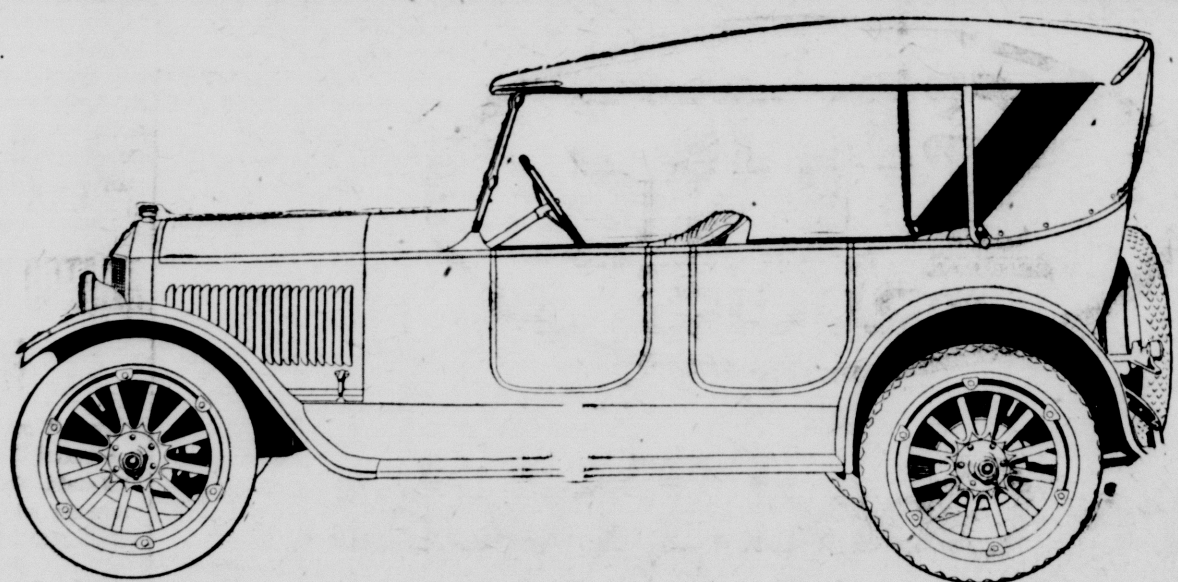

The French advance from Dormans northward on the Marne, the chief of staff pointed out, is across precipitous and wooded terrain, making progress necessarily slow.

AIR FIGHTING HAS BEEN VIOLENT; ALLIES HAVE UPPER HAND

London, July 27. (AP)—Throughout the week the air fighting on the western front has been of a violent character. From a trustworthy source it is learned that during the week the British downed 76 enemy machines and drove 15 out of control. Fifty-one British machines are missing.

One hundred and fifty-four tons of bombs were dropped during the week.

The week's record for long distance bombing attacks was the heaviest of the war. Twenty-five separate raids were made into German territory. Thionville was bombed four times and the famous poison gas factory and munitions works at Mannheim twice. The blast furnaces at Burbach and the railway and factories at Offenbourg also came in for shelling twice.

Aerial attacks on German naval and submarine bases on the Belgian coast continued day and night. Upward of twenty tons of explosives were dropped on Zeebrugge and Ostend.

On the Italian front the air fighting resulted in the downing of nineteen enemy machines without the loss of a single British aircraft.

WAR DRUMS BEAT AS JAPAN PREPARES TO MEET THE HUN

Washington, July 27.—All over Japan the war drums are beating. In camp and cantonment, and barrack yard and study hall, a great mobile army of 25 corps—each corps complete to the last idea in modern warfare—is getting ready to prove its prowess against the Hun. Famous Japanese general officers, just back from observing the fighting in France, are organizing the entire military establishment of the island empire, in accordance with the decision of the general staff to abolish the brigade system and form the fighting force into corps of two divisions, with three regiments to a division. Officers and men are put into practice all the lessons learned from allied and German innovations tested in actual attack and defense.

There is very little excitement. Japan is moving swiftly and quietly. The war plans of the general staff are proceeding with clock-like regularity. Everybody, from the veteran field marshal to the youngest recruit, knows just what he has to do and does it. Discussion is left to the Diet and the newspapers. After many months of weary waiting for opportunity there is a general feeling among all parties and classes that Japan is on the eve of great events. Decisive blows are going to be struck.

SERBIA DAY WILL BE OBSERVED IN U. S.

Washington, July 27. (AP)—The churches of America are called on by Secretary Lansing to observe today the fourth anniversary of Serbia's refusal to meet the demands made by Austria as "Serbia Day," and to give "expressions of their sympathy with this wronged people and their oppressed kindred in other lands and to invoke the blessing of Almighty God upon them and the cause to which they are pledged."

High tribute was paid to the heroism of Serbia by Secretary Lansing.

SAYS ADULT ILLITERACY IN TEXAS IS ALARMING

Austin, July 26.—State Superintendent W. F. Doughty says the percentage of adult illiteracy in Texas and throughout the country is much larger than the people realize and that the situation is really alarming. The facts come to light when registrants report to exemption boards for enlistment in the army. Immediate attention to correct this condition is urged.

INTRODUCTION CARDS TO BE GIVEN WORKERS

Houston, July 26.—To further safeguard exemption boards and officers in enforcing the "work-or-fight" policy of the government against would-be evaders and slackers, an order has just been received by the local United States Bureau of Labor requiring the indorsement of "introduction cards" of those sent out by the bureau to accept positions. The idea is to prevent the fraudulent use of the cards as a cloak to cover up liability to draft or vagrancy charges. The indorsement is to be made by a stamp and reads: "This card expires three days after its date and must be taken up by employer to whom presented."

As an additional precaution a letter will be written to the prospective employer notifying him that the man to whom the card is given is being sent to him for employment.

NOSING INTO THE OUT LADIES' AGES!

Austin, July 27.—That busy bodies have been examining the registration lists and ascertaining the ages of a number of women in order to have something to gossip about with their neighbors, is the charge made by a number of indignant new voters in this city. No suggestion as to how to abate the indignity is offered.

DAMN THE KAISER IS BENEDICTION BY JUDGE LANDIS

Chicago, July 26.—Eighteen men representing eight nations, wearing the khaki of Uncle Sam's army, stood before Federal Judge Landis today and took the final oath that made them citizens of the United States. Concluding the ceremony, Judge Landis addressed the men.

"I hope it falls to the lot of one of you men," said the judge, "to puncture the line of the army that is defending the Kaiser's sons. I hope it will fall to the lot of one of you to kill one of the Kaiser's sons and then the Kaiser himself."

"Damn the Kaiser," the judge concluded and the new citizens applauded enthusiastically.

RAILROAD STRIKE IN UKRAINE GROWS MORE SERIOUS

London, July 27.—The railway strike in Ukraine is extending and assuming the aspect of permanence, according to a Petrograd wireless which quotes a dispatch from Kiev.

The only train running in the whole district is one which the crew was compelled to operate under threat of shooting.

The strike is the result of economic causes, together with the seizure by German authorities of food reserved for trainmen.

LOLA MAN TOOK PART IN CAPTURE OF 100 GERMANS JUNE 11

Waco, Texas, July 27.—A letter has been received by Mrs. E. W. Terrell of Waco from her cousin, Tom Sanders of Iowa, now in the United States marines, who was wounded June 11, although not seriously. An official bulletin received by the young soldier's parents stated that Sanders was one of forty-seven marines who captured 100 Germans and 23 machine guns on the morning of June 11. The same afternoon the same group of marines captured a big German maxim gun. This gun is to be brought back to the United States and on the barrel will be engraved the names of the boys who captured it and also the names of their mothers.

After the completion of the company of Infantry there will be selected from the enlisted men nine sergeants, eleven corporals, two cooks, two buglers and one mechanic. In addition to these positions which are given extra pay the regiment will need office men, headquarters men, musicians, several mechanics and machinists and in fact all the specialty men used in the regular army. Lingerie Secrets

Developed In Charming Colors and Variety of Materials

New York, July 20.—I wonder if there is anything more appealing to the average woman than the soft fluffy details we call lingerie? No matter how plain they are, if there is a touch of handwork and a dainty ribbon or so they are attractive. Now that silk and satin have invaded this realm where linen and cotton reigned supreme there is no limit to the possibilities.

The narrow silhouette, which is the prevailing one according to Madam Mode, demands underwear built on narrow lines. The trimmest petticoats must be limited in width and the number of ruffles carefully counted or one will be that horrible thing, "unfashionable."

The Material Side

Batiste and nainsook are used for the garments one wishes to be soft. The Japanese nainsook is considered the best by many, for it has a soft luster that does not disappear in the laundry tub. Batiste comes in delightfully soft colors. From white to cream and even the deeper shade of ecru the shades are bewitching. Then, too, the other colors, flesh pink, baby blue, lavender and apple-green are charming if one wishes for more color. With the two-tone ribbons, any effect can be carried out perfectly.

The fad of intense colors for underclothes has passed. I am glad to say. Futuristic yellows, oranges and purples never did seem appropriate. They are all very well for the boudoir, the negligee can be very charming in contrasting shades of Georgette crepe or chiffon.

Wash satins and silks have been favorably received by so many women on account of their extreme daintiness and also for the fact that they launder very well. Crepe de Chine "never wears out" and can stand any number of trips to the tub, especially now that there are so many ways of recoloring it. One hears every now and then of chemises and petticoats made from last year's evening dresses. This is not as far-fetched as one would think.

The other are the mercerized materials that look very much like silk or satin. Sateen is splendid for petticoats, slips and camisoles. It, too, costume. We cannot afford to get wrinkles in our dress, and anyway they are not at all comfortable to lounge in, so we have "lounging robes" and negligees that are loose and femininely dainty. There are fascinating affairs on the order of men's smoking costumes, made of satin or silk; there are kimono-like every variety, and there are soft, fluffy "robes" of sheer chiffon, two layers perhaps with two colors that harmonize. The boudoir slipper, too, must be taken into consideration, for "footcase" is a part of the complete rest necessary.

The Sleeveless Nightgown

Following the fashion of sleeveless sweaters and overblouses, we have sleeveless nightgowns and negligees that are both comfortable and attractive. The one illustrated here has a deep scallop outlining the armholes and the neck with Valenciennes lace whipped underneath. Across the yoke is a trailing spray of fine flowers worked in white. The lower part is hemstitched onto the yoke.

ARMY Y. M. C. A.

Lee Clark of San Antonio, Executive Secretary of the Texas Recruiting Committee of the Army Y. M. C. A. was in the city for the purpose of appointing a local recruiting committee for Y. M. C. A. war work.

There is a great demand for Christian men between the ages of 32 and 50 to serve both in the army camps of America and overseas.

While some very choice men have been obtained from this section of the state, no doubt there will be other volunteers when they realize the need and the great opportunity to help win the war.

The following well known citizens are asked to represent the National War Work Council in the capacity of a local recruiting committee.

Booklets explaining the method and the terms of enlistment, together with all necessary blanks will be found at the office of the secretary, Sayers Boyd.

ONLY ONE THING NOW LACKING--MONEY

"I have doctored nine years for stomach and liver trouble and spent thousands of dollars, but instead of becoming cured of these ailments, my bloating and pains and attacks became worse. I was persuaded a year ago to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and have never suffered since taking the first dose. I wish I had the money back I spent for other medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. SLAYS THREE WITH AX, FOR GOD AND KAISER

Oswego, N. Y., July 27.—"I acted for God and the Kaiser," was the explanation of Charles Gero, 75 years old, of Fair Haven, after confessing that he had murdered his wife, Esther, 72; Julius, his brother, 79, and his little granddaughter, Margaret, aged 10.

They had been beaten to death with an ax as they lay asleep. Gero's son, Perle, discovered the murderer hours later lying near the body of the child, who was Perle's daughter. Gero resented action taken by his relatives in sending him to Ogdensburg for observation for supposed mental disorder. He returned home and threatened to shoot those responsible for his detention. A shot-gun was removed from the house, but he secured an ax from the woodshed and carried out his sanguinary threat.

Gero confessed without exhibiting any signs of remorse.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

May be Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—This Letter Proves It.

West Philadelphia, Pa.—"During the thirty years I have been married, I have been in bad health and had several attacks of nervous prostration until it seemed as if the organs in my whole body were worn out. I was finally persuaded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made a well woman of me. I can now do all my housework and advise all ailing women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will guarantee they will derive great benefit from it."—Mrs. FRANK FITZGERALD, 25 N. 41st Street, West Philadelphia, Pa.

There are thousands of women everywhere in Mrs. Fitzgerald's condition, suffering from nervousness, headache, and other symptoms of a functional derangement. It was a grateful spirit for health restored which led her to write this letter so that other women may benefit from her experience and find health as she has done. For suggestions in regard to your condition write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

YOUR SKIRTS WILL BE SHORT, GIRLS, BUT YOU MUST BE LONG ON PEP

Washington, July 27.—Listen, girls! It isn't stylish any more to stand on the heel of one foot and the inside the other foot, with one shoulder higher than the other, and the head jauntily cocked on one side. That was very pretty back in the days of peace and wastefulness. Our war has changed the style in the interest of efficiency.

In the old days you could afford to have a headache at 3 p. m., and feel all worn out and lazy at 4 p. m. But it isn't patriotic now.

Hence, you must stand up straight, both feet squarely on the ground, weight resting on the balls of the feet, haed up, chest out, waist in, after the new fashion of efficiency.

Miss Marguerite Sanderson, employed by the government to increase the efficiency of the thousands of government employees in Washington, is spreading the new style here. Posture has much to do with efficiency, she says. Ill-fitting shoes, and shoes of insanitary shapes, are next in order as allies of the Kaiser in decreasing American efficiency.

GERMANS IN FLIGHT ABANDON SUPPLIES

With the French Armies, July 24.—(Delayed)—There is a scene south of the river Marne today which, once photographed on the human mind, can never be driven from it. It is a battle field from which more than 50,000 Germans, finding their safety menaced by Foch's strategy and the victorious allied advance above them, retreated swiftly two days ago to the north bank of the river.

Stiffened corpses still lying there, carrion horseflesh, debris of wagons and cannon and a mass of soldiers' equipment and munitions scattered over miles of surface torn and tortured by powerful explosives, give a picture of war in terrible reality.

But the scene is not uniformly like this. The terrain is punctuated occasionally by yellow wheat fields, which seem to heal somewhat the wounded countryside, though close inspection reveals in them blackened patches of shell holes or something worse.

Occasionally red-roofed villages appear, nestling in the valleys of this country, just south of the famous river. Close inspection shows they are now only empty shells, having been looted systematically by the advancing Germans and torn by both allied and enemy explosives.

COSTLY BLAZE IS CAUSED BY PELICAN

Klamath, Falls, Ore., July 26.—Fire, believed to have been caused by a pelican flying against the wires and crossing a high tension power circuit at the Link River plant of the California-Oregon Power company burned two 1,800 transformers, several fences and a large plot of dried grass surrounding.

It was a spectacular conflagration, as the crossed wires, carrying a charge of 40,000 volts, sent great sheets of flame in all directions.

The dead pelican was afterward found floating in the water.

REVIVAL CLOSSES TODAY

10:45 "The Church and the Lodge," Mr. Brown.
3 p. m. "Samson and the Lady Barber," Mr. Brown.
8 p. m. "The Last Call," Mr. Brown.

All the churches identified with the tabernacle meeting, will be closed today except for Sunday school, and the entire efforts will be centered in the big revival work. At 10:45 Mr. Brown will speak on the church and the lodge, a talk that has aroused much comment. The evangelist is not anti-lodge, by any means but he is distinctly pro-church, and has a convincing manner of contrasting the two.

In the afternoon Mr. Brown will give a picture of the athletic gentleman who after carrying off the brass gates of Gaza, weighing several tons, went to a lady barber to get shaved. It was quite a journey down a side street, but he got there engaged the lady, got a close shave and she threw in a hair cut. The strong man hadn't asked for a hair cut, didn't want a hair cut, but she had him paralyzed after the first round so he didn't know what he wanted. To make a longish story short the lady trimmed him plenty and manicured his finger nails, massaged him to sleep finally and Mr. Brown proposes to tell the story and draw a few lessons for any wise men in this vicinity who have been recommended to lady barbers, or "vampiresses."

For "The Lady Barber" a reservation will be kept for men, and the women will once more sit on the side lines.

Last Service.

The night service will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. Mr. Stover says the chorus will put on the big favorites and the music put through in record time and without delay, since the preacher has to make the night train for Siloam Springs.

The evangelist will be accompanied to Siloam and the bible conference there by the Stovers who will stay a few days, before going on their way to the Ozarks where their home is and where their vacation will be spent.

The fall campaigns begin early in September, and from then there is no rest, but a continuous string of meetings, often one impinging on the other.

Probably no evangelist has ever visited Paris who has so universally won the respect and endorsement of pastors and people as Mr. Brown and his co-workers. There is nothing equivocal about the evangelist, and he hits the nail on the head with admirable precision, but he don't twist the nail, hammer it edgewise, file it down and rasp it; just hits it a man sized lick. His teachings on the "Holy Spirit," "Second Coming" and "Tithing" have all been in the nature of revelations to our people; they know why they have done things, and Mr. Brown has won his standing in this community by sensible, clear work without commonplace platitudes or hobby riding.

LION SINKS TEETH IN WOMAN TRAINER'S ARM

New York, N. Y., July 27.—While training two lions in a cage 12x8 feet in dimensions at headquarters of an animal importing company here, Margaret Greskrep, 25 years old, a lion trainer, was attacked from behind by another lion named Julius.

The animal buried its teeth in the woman's right arm. Captain Edward Shell, another lion trainer, who also was in the cage, assisted by employees of the company, drove the lion into a corner by means of long poles, and then carried the woman, who was partly unconscious, out of the cage.

She was taken to a hospital suffering from a badly lacerated arm. It was stated at the hospital that a part of the muscle of the arm had been torn out.

CHEATER IS CHEATED; GETS A FINE, TOO

St. Louis, July 26.—The defense of Frank Vocum, a saloonkeeper in Warren county, Missouri, that he could not be prosecuted for shipping liquor to a dry county because the customer to whom he sold purchased on credit and failed to pay, was overruled in a decision in the court of appeals.

Vocum was fined $250 by the Montgomery county circuit court for expressing two cases of German beer to Sam Wood at Montgomery City. Judge Reynolds, in affirming the conviction, said there would be little use of local option legislation if liquor dealers could escape its penalties by pleading that they sold on credit. The fact that the law does not recognize a liquor debt made no difference, the judge said.

SHE TELLS HOW HUNS FLOG CAPTIVE WOMEN

New York, July 26.—Defining German kultur as cruel barbarism, Mme. Cecile Gillot, who is back in the United States, while the estate of her husband, who was killed by the Boches, is being settled, told how the Germans held her prisoner and beat her with the butts of rifles because she would not divulge military information.

"The Huns have killed my husband and six of my brothers and they have maimed a seventh brother for life," said Mme. Gillot. "They shot off both legs of my seventh brother. Still, with all this I would risk my life to save a wounded enemy on the field of battle. That is the spirit of all the Red Cross nurses with the allied armies."

"Some of us were captured by the Huns, who held us prisoners for two days. During that time, in the hope that we might have valuable knowledge, they questioned us. When they realized that no information could be obtained that way they struck us with the butts of rifles, and this failing to get the desired information the other nurses and myself got our freedom."

During her three years at the front this French heroine was gassed, once and suffered blood poisoning, which developed from scratches received while crawling through barbed wire entanglements. Marshal Joffre personally decorated her with the French War Cross for her bravery under fire.

$250 DIAMOND IS SWALLOWED BY DOG

Uniontown, Pa., July 25.—"You don't want a policeman—get a doctor," This was the advice given Miss Mary Williams when she appeared at police headquarters and explained that her pet dog Rover had swallowed her diamond ring, valued at $250.

"No, I don't want my dog shot," replied Miss Williams when the police sergeant suggested that the dog be shot and autopsy be held in order to recover the ring.

Miss Williams was playing with Rover and put her hand in his mouth. Rover closed his jaws and the diamond ring caught in his teeth. Two other rings of less value were also caught. Rover stretched his neck and swallowed the gems with apparent ease.

"Well, the ring's gone, but I'll keep my dog," said Miss Williams, as she left police headquarters.

MURDERS BROTHER AND ENDS OWN LIFE

Boise, Idaho, July 26.—A double tragedy occurred on a ranch near Alpha, in an isolated section of Western Idaho, when Edward Dunn murdered his brother, Tom, and then killed himself. The murderer left a note addressed to the cashier of the Cascade Bank admitting he did the killing and directing the sale of his property. He failed to give the cause. It is believed they quarreled over property. They owned farms valued at about $30,000.

Both were bachelors and lived together for many years. The bodies were discovered by settlers residing in that vicinity. The murdered man lay on the bed with the top of his head blown off. The suicide lay on the floor.

The men were about 50 years of age and had been residents of Lone Valley for many years. They were well and favorably known.

MOLINE Universal Tractor

As Powerful as 5 Horses
Does as Much Work as 7 Horses
Costs Less than 4 Horses
Requires Less Care than 1 Horse
Less Room than 1 Horse
Eats Only When it Works

The Ideal Tractor

No other tractor on the market will do such a great variety of work, nor is as correct in design and construction as the Moline Universal. It makes the horseless farm possible. A farm horse averages 35 hours work a day through the entire year, and tires in six. It costs from 12 to 14 cents per working hour to maintain a horse, and requires 25 minutes a day to care for him; or fourteen ten-hour days a year.

And yet there isn't enough power to plow as deep as scientific methods require to harrow more frequently, so that organic matter will be utilized, moisture conserved, and a good state of soil tith maintained; to cultivate more frequently; and to harvest at the proper time.

Let us tell you how the Moline Universal Tractor can reduce the cost of power on your farm. It will pay you.

Cut the Cost of Horse Labor

The cost of horse labor is almost one-half the gross operating expense on the average farm. A farm horse averages only 35 hours work a day through the entire year, and tires in six. It costs from 12 to 14 cents per working hour to maintain a horse, and requires 25 minutes a day to care for him; or fourteen ten-hour days a year.

Let us tell you how the Moline Universal Tractor can reduce the cost of power on your farm. It will pay you.

A Real One-Man Outfit

The Moline Universal is easier to handle than a team of horses, weighs about the same, turns in a 16-foot circle and will back with the implement attached. It is compact, simple, close-coupled, a wonderful puller and carries no dead weight. And best of all, it is operated from the seat of the implement attached. This permits one man to operate both tractor and implement.

AN ORDINANCE

Prohibiting the wasting of City water or the use of water out of the City pipes or mains by hose for the purpose of sprinkling lawns, flowers, grass, washing buggies or vehicles of any kind, and prescribing a penalty for violation and declaring an emergency.

Whereas, it is absolutely necessary to conserve the City's water: Now, therefore, be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Paris:

Section 1—That from and after the passage of this ordinance, it will be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association of persons whatever to waste any City water or use water from the City mains or pipes for the purpose of sprinkling lawns, grass, flowers, trees, hedges, gardens or washing buggies, automobiles or vehicles of any kind by use of hose, and any person violating any of the foregoing provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the Corporation Court, shall be fined in any sum not less than Five ($5.00) Dollars, or more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars.

Section 2—That this ordinance take effect from and after its passage.

The fact that the City's water supply is getting low, and it is absolutely necessary to use every effort to conserve same in order that the people may not be deprived entirely of the use thereof, and that notwithstanding the fact that the supply is low, some of the people have been watering lawns, grass and flowers, with a hose, creates a public emergency requiring that the rules and charter provisions prohibiting the passage of an ordinance at the meeting at which introduced and requiring submission of same to a committee, be suspended and the same is accordingly done and this ordinance will take effect from and after its passage.

ALL CLASS 1 MEN TO BE CALLED BEFORE MORE PROVIDED

Washington, July 27.—There is a possibility of exhaustion of draft Class 1 before Congress can finally act to extend draft ages.

Some states have wired to Provost Marshal General Crowder that they are on the verge of drawing their last man of the first class. To rescue the situation so that it will not necessitate invasion of deferred classes, it is likely that a call for men who have turned 21 will be issued before Jan. 1, 1919. That, however, may not prevent invasion of the second class unless Congress acts hastily upon extension of draft ages when it reconvenes at the end of August.

It is predicted that by Labor Day the last of the fighting men now in Class 1 will have been called. Meantime, the war department is working its program for extending the draft age limits.

Chairman Dent of the House Military Committee predicts there will be a fight in congress if there is too radical sweep downward, though he told the press that the house will probably yield to anything "reasonable." The house is the most opposed to the extension downward, but it is likely that it will not go to the point of attempting to thwart the President's wishes.

VIERECK ADMITS HE WAS PAID AGENT OF KAISER IN U. S.

New York, July 27.—George Sylvester Viereck's exposure as a paid agent of the German government's propaganda machine in the United States came to a close today on the heels of the announcement that he had been expelled from the Author's League for his alleged disloyalty.

Viereck, under examination by United States officials, admitted he received approximately $250 a week from Austrian and German sources and that at other times he received as much as $1,000 from Count von Bernstorff and other German agents. His library, consisting mainly of German war propaganda, is in the hands of the government.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

When you set out to select the motor car that will best suit your own particular needs and your purse, you demand as primary requisites, the highest degree of reliability with economy of operation.

And every salesman you meet insists his car is that car.

If you are informed, as you should be, you are liable to quote some of those Maxwell records—to see what he will say, mostly.

He must say something and usually he affects to disbelieve those records.

You remind him that they are official—made under the sanction and supervision of A. A. A. officials.

Then he insists that his car will do as well or better.

Your cue, at this point, is to ask that perfectly fair and most pertinent question, "Then why doesn't your car go out and do it?"

We'll tell you why—it can't.

Any Maxwell salesman can take you through this car, from motor to rear axle, taking up in turn every unit and comparing design and construction and strengths with any and all other cars of similar size and capacity.

And he will show you right there why this Maxwell can, and that rival can't.

For it is all there—in the design; in the dimensions of parts; in the quality of materials and in the making.

Let him show you. He will take all the time you will give him—and you owe it to yourself to know before you decide.

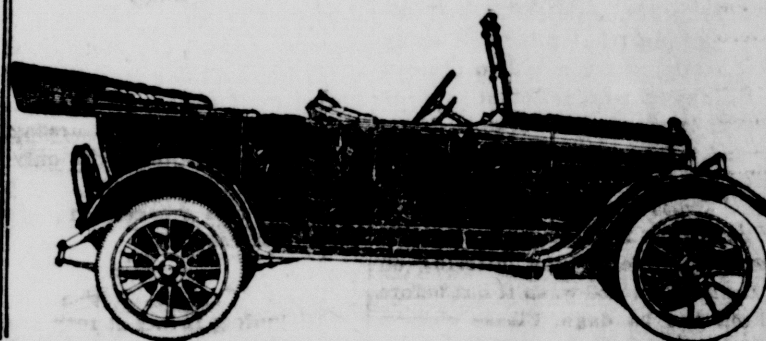

Then when any salesman tries to convince you that you ought to pay $100 or $150 or $200 more for a motor car—ask him to show you one as good as this Maxwell.

Insist on proofs—not mere statements.

For if a car will do it, surely that fact is susceptible of proof.

"Claims are all right, but only proofs count." That is the Maxwell slogan.

If you would have the claims and promises of salesmen backed by proofs, and in official form—that car must be a Maxwell.

GIRL CHUMS CLAIM THE SAME HUSBAND

Chicago, July 26.—Flora Pierson and Grace Parkington once were the best of chums in Harrisburg, Ill. Then they met in front of the army and navy hostess house in Highland Park, Ill., the former with a baby. She was looking for Ross Baldwin, her husband, she said. Grace also made a claim to Ross. "We were married last week," she said. And Baldwin, who is in the 40th Infantry, left the hostess house by the rear exit.

CITIZENS ASKED FOR INFORMATION ABOUT SLACKERS

The Lamar county exemption boards have begun the work of re-checking their classifications in order to re-classify persons who may be in classes to which they are not entitled.

The assistance of the patriotic and honest citizens is necessary in this work. The members of the boards cannot possibly know the circumstances of each of the five thousand registrants in Lamar county and the questionnaires do not always contain all the facts.

Anyone who knows of a man who is wrongly classified, or who has reason to believe one is wrongly classified, should inform a member of the board in person or by letter. All information given the board is held confidential and the person giving it will not be known.

This is a duty every citizen owes his country and his neighbor. Whenever a man should be in Class 1 succeeds in staying out, it sends to the war a man further down the line who might not have gone if the other had been properly classified.

Give us the information—we will do the work.

Hospital Garments.

All hospital garments that were unfinished when we were put on an over quota basis must be finished immediately and sent to the Paris work room. It is very necessary that they be shipped before our quota arrives.

Attendance in Surgical Dressings.

Because the Surgical Dressings workroom is closed four afternoons in the week is no reason for the decided falling off in the attendance at the morning classes. It was the intention of those in charge to combine those afternoon classes with the morning classes only during the hot weather and every room should be filled with workers every morning. As yet there is no change in Surgical Dressings and as long as we can get the gauze we are asked to send a steady output of dressings. We have plenty of gauze and we have certainly not been asked to discontinue making gauze Surgical Dressings. So there is no reason and no excuse for the women to stop coming to the classes. Monday and Friday the classes are open all day and on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday for the morning only. Let us have the rooms filled every morning with earnest and enthusiastic workers.

Knitting.

On account of trouble in getting sweaters right size no more sweater yarn will be given out until we get some more definite directions from St. Louis. It will only take a few days.

Tri-Angular and Many-Tailed Bandages.

All branches, auxiliaries and societies making tri-angular and many tailed bandages are asked to observe the following requirements: These bandages are surgical dressings and must be handled in the most sanitary manner. They must be made in Red Cross work rooms where every condition is clean and sanitary. Whenever there is blue lettering on the domestic please wash it out before making the bandage. Please observe carefully the exact measurements required. Each string on the tri-angular is 1 1/2 yards long and 1 inch wide all raw sides and the ends of strings must be hemmed. There are always two strings to each tri-angular bandage. The tails of the many-tailed bandages should be torn (never cut) just exactly 18 inches (no more and no less). All bandages must be folded according to directions and tied properly in packages of five. Each branch and auxiliary making these bandages will please have its supervisor responsible for the finished dressings. She should inspect carefully all bandages, marking them with her name and address before sending them to the Paris workroom and in case any corrections are necessary they will be returned to her. Do not let any one make these bandages who will not follow directions. This work is just as important as the making of hospital garments and gauze surgical dressings and requires the same cleanliness and accuracy. They cannot be accepted unless they meet these requirements.

We hope this bundle will meet with your entire approval. We have done our best to make it do so. If it pleases you give us a kind word, that we may be spurred on to greater efforts. Try the other branches of our laundry work, especially our cleaning department. The question of fast colors and good buttons is a serious one, but we are having great success in this line.

"Joan, Who Leads the Soldiers" Joan, who leads the soldiers, listen to a prayer; Joan, who heartens fighting men and makes them bold to dare,

When the word is given, side by side, as soldiers may, All the rain of hate and hell, because you lead the way.

You were once a little maid; in the spring you had Pleasure in the bashful words of some comely lad.

If you have not quite forgot, lend a listening ear; Joan of blessed memory, bend to me and hear!

Where the tallest men of all, where the bravest stand, You will see a stalwart youth, firm of eye and hand.

(Joan, who leads the soldiers, listen to a maid!) You will know him by his eyes that are not afraid;

You will know him by his mouth that is laughing still, When from out the angry sky singing missiles spill.

You that lead the soldiers, hold your blessed arm Before the face of my own lad and keep him safe from harm —Mary Carolyn Davies.
